

Government said yesterday that it is illegal for schools to bar pupils from writing examinations because the issue of writing examinations is a contract between the Zimbabwe School Examinations Council (Zimsec) and pupils and therefore has nothing to do with school authorities.

Created.... 26 October 2013

Read more.....