

There is disharmony within the civil service following a salary increase effected by Government this month that has resulted in some teachers earning more than their headmasters. The gross monthly salary of a senior degreed teacher who is in grade E1 is pegged at US$548 while that of a deputy head in grade D5 is pegged at US$530.

Created: 23 April 2014

Read more...