

Government and a disability rights organisation yesterday signed a memorandum of understanding to eliminate discrimination and barriers to participation and learning for children with disabilities in the country. Speaking at the signing ceremony, the Minister of Primary and Secondary Education, Dr Lazarus Dokora, said Government was committed to promoting a more inclusive educational approach to provide learning opportunities for children with disabilities.

Created: 16 June 2014

Read more...