

OVER 6 000 pupils have been forced to drop out of school in the Matabeleland region as a result of hunger, a situation that might worsen following recent reports that the region might be faced with another dry season.

Created: 18 October 2015

Read more