

There will be free education for all pupils in public schools who will register for science subjects when they enrol for Advanced level this year, with Government paying for their full school and boarding fees.

Created: 28 January 2016

Read more.....