

HARARE: - Restive civil servants who meet government today to discuss its new measures which include retrenching 25 000 workers, say they are prepared to accept its position if it cuts ministries and off-load luxury cars being driven by the ministers.

Created 14 Semptember 2016

Read more.....